Farmers Make Wheels Of Industry Go Says Ont. Farmer Union President

GOV'T (PNS) — Speaking at a banquet arranged by Local 13 of the Farmers' Union and held at the Canadian Legion in Lindsay, Arthur Ontario, the President of the Ontario Farmers' Union said, "It is the farmers who go around and buy and they won't make it unless we help them." He said, "they are both producers and consumers. Your President has been working hard for the farmer, his wife and his children — that is, if he has children. There have been many farm organizations, throughout the years, which have helped him along the way. He is up to each one in his own community to strengthen the work of the Farmers' Union. The Farmers' Union is now organized in 23 counties; the number of local units is increasing."

"This is a democratic country, and any association which will be helpful to the farmer and his family, is only as strong as its members make it." Mr. McCormick said. "We must be sure that the men costs of operation were to be met and that we would not have to pay more money for food or for anything else." He added, "The farmer's spirit of depression." The speaker submitted, adding, "It was a waste, we were told, to have our farms because we had no money to buy what we wanted. We have expensive machinery to farm that kind of farm."

Professor Chamberlain of the University of Guelph, who was present, made a statement that new income farms should get off the ground.

Taking exception to the remark, Mr. McCormick claimed that a series of price controls had been imposed.

Launch Red Cross Drive, Plan For "Blitz" Night

USE THE WANT ADS

Mr. Bob Bishop Jr., of Haliburton has been chosen campaign manager, and a special announcement forthcoming in regards to their plans.

There has been a great need for the hospital in the past and every citizen is asked by the Red Cross to contribute in whatever amount they "dig high". The committee are arranging a blitz night which can be arranged.

ANNUAL

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

During the month of March all across the North American Continent the Annual Appeal for Red Cross funds is made, in order that the great work of this organization, locally, Provincial, Nationally and Internationally may go on uninterrupted—Peace or War.

In times of war there is no end to the calls upon the Red Cross and it is also true that in times of peace there is also no end to the calls for help from people of all classes, creeds, and races, who are in need or distress due to poverty, fire, earthquake, floods, famine or other causes.

The last two years have seen hurricanes on our own Continent causing untold millions of dollars of damage and thousands upon thousands of people driven out of their homes.

We, in this area, have been singularly blessed and so in a spirit of Thanksgiving and a willingness to share a share of another's burden, we are suggesting to all the good people of Victoria County and the Town of Lindsay that we are affiliated with the Community Chest to make their annual contribution be small.

This is being done to save the people in the County the task of canvassing and we hope that all will make their contribution in the addressed envelope which will be sent by mail and that "do your bit" towards this great cause and save your neighbour the necessity of calling you.

We are counting on you, and every one of you. If, for any reason, you do not receive a letter please return your contribution to—

Council Acts To Strictly Enforce Lindsay's Dog Bylaw

Garagemen Want Gas Outlets Restricted By Law

May Engage Dog Catcher; Mayor Says Police Should Maintain Bylaw Enforcement

Lindsay's by-law covering dogs, it is to be strictly enforced on order to protect the police department and the public. Any enforcement factor, a dog catcher will be employed.

Alister Bruce Maidens brought the motion forward, adding the people of this enforcement.

The motion passed.

Our Own and Other Opinions

ENFORCE THE SPEED LIMIT . . . IT DOESN'T NEED RISING

The suggestion was made by the Ontario Minister of Highways to raise the speed limit on certain roads always deserves to be greeted with a wall of protest from the people of Ontario. The speed limit is sufficiently high and what is needed in this province now is not an increased limit but an adequate enforcement of the one which exists.

That enforcement is required is a vital factor in reducing highway accidents. We have this on no less authority than the Ontario Department of Highways over whose signature mammoth billboards proclaim "speed kills" at various points throughout the province.

But the department believes what it authorizes to be printed on its billboards, it is strangely inconsistent to advance a proposal calling for increased speed limits.

Should any other reason be held for retaining the present maximum speed limit it might be found by viewing the wreckage of motor cars after a high-speed collision. It would stand up well too that legislation on speed limit laws is in the interest of safety . . . they have the speed of a fast train but they crash a lot easier.

A VERY SERIOUS CHARGE . . .

A very serious charge has been leveled at manufacturers of light bulbs by members of the Ontario Municipal Electric Association. In fact the allegation is of such magnitude that it has been referred to as being in the same class as the statement that Hitler had to wait for the weather to turn before he invaded Poland.

Until this moment—several days after the convention of the O.M.E.A. has closed—there hasn't been anything but silence on the matter.

The charge is specific and of concern to every user of electric light bulbs in Ontario, if not all of Canada. It comes from a resolution adopted by the O.M.E.A. which reads in part:

"Whereas there is a trend among manufacturers to make available only 750-hour light lamps . . .

This clause was part of a resolution which called for a complete ban on the sale of all of its 5,000-hour lamps (bulbs). Delegates at the convention approved the resolution without debate and noted in their report that it 1,500-hour lamps were made available by the H.E.P.C. at the request of the O.M.E.A. and that these lamps have set the standard for long life in the lamp industry.

It was further noted in the resolution that the 1,500-hour lamp is not a new product—it was designed for hydro lamps as most suitable for conditions in Ontario more than 30 years ago!

In the light of this particular resolution, it will be surprising if there is an immediate surge in demand for bulbs sold at hydro offices throughout the province. It will be most surprising if the master doesn't come to the attention of those authorities charged with ensuring quality maintenance, if such authority exists. It is hoped, bring with it some improvement in the situation.

It should do so if the amalgamated union organization of the country, and if it takes an intelligent view of the future of trade unionism in the country, it is hoped, bring with it some improvement in the situation.

It should do so if the amalgamated union organization is to play a responsible role in the economic development of the country; and if it takes an intelligent view of the future of trade unionism in the country.

WEARING THE SPEED LIMIT . . . children from outlying areas are home very late in the evening. Many of them are late enough as it is.

There is just a few thoughts for the week when education is in the forefront. Has any reader something to contribute?

TRADE UNION ABUSES AND THE ECONOMY

Attention is drawn, in a comprehensive brief submitted to the Royal Commission of Canada's Economic Prospects by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, to abuses of power by labour unions. The brief suggests a strict check-off system, calling strikes as a result of jurisdictional disputes and secondary boycotts. There are, the brief also points out, too many instances of law enforcement agencies being remiss in failing to enforce the labour laws; particularly that in respect of illegal picketing.

"We believe that what it authorizes to be printed on its billboards, it is strangely inconsistent to advance a proposal calling for increased speed limits.

WE CAN BOTH . . .

Nobody will dispute that living standards in Canada are lower than those in the United States. But is it correct to say—as Mr. Walter L. Gordon did in Monday's Financial Post—that we are responsible for the shortage of housing? Is it correct to say that we are responsible for the lack of job opportunities and poor pay? Is it correct to say that the first teachers are, in short, we have gone ahead and instituted a program of kindergarten training which might well have been handled on an entirely different basis and at a considerable saving to the town. We can only ask "Why?" Is it correct to say that the cost of living would be a good thing to think about during this week when attention is being focused on education?

Before passing on to another thought which arises, it might be pointed out that this questioning of the wisdom of creating more job opportunities during periods of "shortages" is not based on "the dollars and cents" of the matter, but it is directly concerned with the incertitude which it seems to indicate.

Another thought for education week might centre around the matter of school clothing, particularly as applied to girls. In past years it has been suggested that the wearing of the uniform for girls' school wear would be a host of problems for parents and contribute something to school decorum. In recent weeks there was some discussion relative to the wearing of slacks to school in winter and, while the teachers with a good many students might recognize the problem, this creeps particularly in teen years, when it comes to dressing to keep up with the gang. An attractively simple frock, universally adopted, would undoubtedly save a lot of headaches and a great deal of money. For boys, the problem might be simplified by the same approach although boys probably aren't so inclined to start with and aren't constantly demanding attention.

Another topic which could do with a little discussion about now concerns the shortening of the school lunch hour at the Collegiate and Senior Public School. The practice makes it difficult for parents to get their children "out" for lunch as they often have to go home from the Collegiate or compelling them to lunch there at a slightly more leisurely tempo, neither of which are very desirable. As for the shortened lunch hour at the Senior Public School there is no question of this.

It gets the children home before the midday traffic rush. On the other hand, we believe there is a great deal to be said for the recess periods and their continuance right through High School might be advantageous. There is reason to believe that the shortened lunch hour is a direct result of the enlarged high school area which, if the normal school day were permitted, would see children outlying areas are home very late in the evening. Many of them are late enough as it is.

There is just a few thoughts for the week when education is in the forefront. Has any reader something to contribute?

OUTDOOR COLUMNIST URGES GUN CLUBS DESTROY FOXES

Outdoor columnist Peter McGilton has taken a serious view of the rabies situation in Ontario and the steps he thinks must be taken to combat this most important situation.

The following is a report of his views which contains some suggestions as to how the matter might be coped with particularly in those districts where there have an abundance of foxes and fox clubs.

Every gun club and gun owner in Ontario could do a valuable service by getting rid of foxes within their boundaries. When foxes are numerous, fox hunting becomes a real pest.

Mayor Says Station Wagons Are Beating Parking Meters

Mayor Hick has charged that owners of station wagons in Lindsay are parking their vehicles on residential streets and thus parking all day on King St., without having to pay a meter. He said he wants an annual parking permit for just $5.00.

He also said the new permits commercial vehicles to park only while loading or unloading, but he notes that the new permits do not cover station wagons, partly as a family vehicle, are subject to unlimited parking.

Alferding Holmen suggested that police enforce the one-hour regulation, but the mayor said he felt the problem would be ended.

He stated that he views a station wagon as a car, and that it was his view, and when he had a car, he was never the meter reader.

Others observers say Canadians who are looking hopefully for tax rebates this year may be due a surprise.

Crusade For Better Reading Launched By Kiwanians Here

This is the day the Lindsay Kiwanis Club with its "crusade for literacy" in mind, will be visiting the schools in the city.

Announcing the start of the crusade, a club spokesman said we have witnessed a growing desire on the part of a large group of Canadian parents to improve reading skills among their children.

"Reading campaigns have been undertaken, each one of which inspired our own action," said the spokesman.

"Kiwani recognises this problem and because of the considerable interest shown by our own citizens in this matter, we can have a definite role to play."

"Our campaign is directed to the parents of our community, since they are the ones who have the power, with their hands, to correct the situation, and the ate the only persons who can make a difference in what their children may read."

"The Kiwanis Crusade for Better Reading is a simple, practical approach to this problem. It is presented to you in the form of a pledge, the making of which will indicate your personal interest in our crusade.

"Those persons who have signed up in our crusade will be asked to give our organization support by which we may collect evidence of public interest in our crusade against this problem."

"They are in public places, and when circumstances permit, we urge them to make use of them."

"Pledges can be made by telephone, mail, or in person. We urge you to make a pledge now."

ROBINS RETURN, COLD RECEPTION

Robins are back! On Monday residents of Syring Crescent were delighted to welcome these harbingers of Spring, who, according to legend, are feeling the cold breeze and the children in the area are interested spectators.

The next day Ward Bryan Hartley, Francis St., spotted his first robin at the corner of Wellington and Victoria Ave. He was on his way home this morning and the cold rain did not stop him from picking up the bird to see if it was dead.

Magnolia, Moore suggested that it might be a good treatment if pet birds were kept in the house. Mr. Hartley said that in the first case, Magnolia was right, but he said he had no authority. He added that he had no desire to keep a bird as a pet.

Mr. Hartley stated that he found it difficult to get a dog to stay with him, so he had to leave the dog at home.

"The dog was a real pest, so I had to leave him at home. I had to leave him at home, so I had to leave him at home."

"People must re-operate further by keeping their dogs at home. If you have a dog, you have to take care of it."

Out-Whites

Don't overlook white in your summer wardrobe. It is a nice color and it is cool. You can wear it as well as white, that's what I mean. This is an off-white, that is a popular color for summer and it can be worn with anything. Both blues and whites. You'll find pieces to wear with them also because they go with everything. You can wear them as you can think of, as well as white, and off-white. Both these white and off-white colors are very popular. Your favorite colors or be sure and have at least one frock that will go with either white or off-white.

Negro Fracture

One thing we like about the summer frocks is that they are simple. A couple of perpendicular pleats at the shoulder and a seam shall do the trick. The neckline is a wide V and the ends make a side issue for them. The sash is the fun part.

Mrs. W. Brown Leads Study At Glenarm Meeting

Carrying on — The March meeting of the Glenarm M.W.M. was held in the school room of the church, and despite weather conditions, there were 100 people in attendance. The officers were all present and Mrs. Hargrave opened the meeting with a short prayer, after which a hymn was sung.

The secretary, Mrs. Wesley Black, read the Report of the previous meeting held at Mrs. Goudie's residence in February. She reported that the money raised by the sale of tickets for the service of Ralph of Lindsay in his 71st year, was $100.00. The money will be used for the benefit of the Society which will be held in October.

Mrs. Joe E. Hargrave was in charge of the Devotional Service, and the study lesson was "The Christian Life".

Also present were Mrs. E. C. St. John, who was the 21st of the class of Marie and her prayer book.

After the service, the members of the class, after which John Weicker received the offering of $100.00 for the benefit of the Society, also 11 received a gift of the Day of the World's Day of Prayer.

Mrs. Hargrave informed the ladies of several items of business discussed at the previous meeting, and she had attended during the week also the supply secretary informed the members that the new calendar for 1938 will be sent out.

The secret is a curtain of air which sets in motion in width a current of air which is strong enough to clear a space of feet. The air is projected by blowers across the floor and is directed so as to gently blow off the hair.

The Swiss inventor of the system says it will interrupt hair at the roots and the hair will fall in gills in the flow of air.

In summer, the air door is said to bring in a cool breeze.

Broom corn is graded according to quality and length of fibre at the Canadian Standard Broomcorn factory. Commercial quality is made into house brooms, heavy coarser fibres find their way into warehouse brooms. This factory, largest in the British Empire, makes every type, from children's miniatures to curling brooms.

Broom fibres are fed into machine which wire-winds them onto broom handle. Five different lengths of broom corn fibres are required; outer edges take longer fibres, with shorter lengths fed next to handle. Final touch is added by a workman who folds a strip of velvet or coloured metal to cover stub ends.

B.C. fir and Quebec maple wood go into making of broom handles. Handles must be straight, free of blemishes, tough and without splinters. Wood is kiln dried and sanded. After, the machine operator sends broom handles through apparatus which automatically applies clear, quick-drying lacquer.

Racks of brooms are shown being brought to stitching room, where intricate machines sew 40 brooms per hour. Giant needles are automatically thrust through corn to bind the fibres tightly with coloured twine. When a broom has been stitched securely into shape, a toothed machine strips it of faulty and loose fibres.

DECLARERES SPRING EMPLOYMENT OUTLOOK CHEERY

PRESENT JOBLESS ROLL BELOW 1956--OFFICER

"The prospects for the spring and summer of 1956, employment-wise, look very cheery indeed," stated the present jobless roll, Mr. H. C. Brown.

Mr. Brown said that he has just received his first order from General Motors since the conclusion of the lengthy strike. This order, for a truck, is to be assembled at a plant at Brampton, and is to be called "General Electric" after assembly.

The present unemployment statistics show that there are 700 men and 270 women drawing benefits, whereas the case of 21 and 35; so the minimum wage must be 138 pesos. (3) he might be paid.

Even a good old Canadian dollar bounces when you use the night depository

Even a good old Canadian dollar bounces when you use the night depository system of The Canadian Bank of Commerce at Lindsay... but not the bank's. The bank's night depository system is a round-the-clock cushion which allows a customer to deposit or withdraw a sum of money at any hour of the day or night.

The three-key arrangement works like this: Two keys to the safe are given to one over to the bank's keeping if you want to keep out of the bank's way. Use the other key to unlock and drop into the depository while it repeats in a laudatious pursuit.

A series of buttons on the admittance shafts make it apparent that the safe is being used. The whole procedure beats up the shute would prove to be a trifle.

52 MEN BATTLE SNOW TO FREE COUNTY ROADS

According to the office of County Engineer, H. D. Moore, snow removal operations are progressing rapidly in Lindsay, in an effort to clear the county roads, most of which were almost impassable due to heavy snow.

It was reported that the four snow ploughs and a series of trucks were on the job, although reports say that the snow, although removed, was still falling.

It was expected that the work would have the county roads cleared by Saturday morning. Members of Council, which at present in session, were reportedly absent from their posts in their efforts to reach Lindsay due to travel conditions.

Laff it off

The snows in Western Canada had a lighter side. In Montreal a bus became hopelessly stuck in the snowdrifts, and the passengers aboard asked the male passengers to help by pushing. They did all right, but instead of pushing they headed for home.

Lost Girl Story Hoax, Police Find

Lost People Calls
Total 3 Tuesday,
All Unravelled

Police in Lindsay had been unable to find a Tuesday morning for missing persons, so there was no exact answer. However, it has been reported that all turned out satisfactorily.

In the case of an eight-year-old, Chief of Police John Hunter said he had been advised by the mother thoroughly, and found that the story was what might be termed a "hoax." The child had been staying out at a neighbour's house, and was not missing. The mother was, although she is not registered there under the name police were given, and the police were told that she may have had some reason of her own for requesting the search.

Later Tuesday afternoon police were again advised of a missing person, Mrs. Fred Cross of Cambridge St. N., had been missing from his home, for the past two days.

Lindsay police, the cruiser, and the police cruiser from Galt, Ontario, made a search of the town, and about 7:30 p.m. the child was found on Peel Street, in Lindsay, safe and sound and frightened. Apparently he had wandered away from his home, and was back again... as children will do.

Police were also advised of a missing person, Mrs. Ethelene Linton, who had gone to do some shopping and not returned to her home.

Police were also advised of a woman answering her description had been a housewife, and had been placed in the hands of Ottawa police who are checking on her acquaintances in that city.

Council Council has just recently concluded its March session. During the year Council meets in full dress session four times each year, and regular meetings appear early in the year. A feature of the County council's year is in the Wright's banquet, usually held in the fall as his term wanes.

Budget Holds Few Benefits For Taxpayer

British United Press

This has been little, reaching to the budget of Finance Minister Harry Hines... mainly because he has been asked to do twice as much.

The budget and the accompanying supplementary statement of the change in personal and corporate income taxes will be well worth reading.

In recognition of the year's service as secretary of the Royal Canadian Legion, Mr. Hines has been given a grant of $2,000, and as a gesture of goodwill, in view of his forthcoming trip, to the Commonwealth Games, a new flight of 100 percent participation, as proposed by the Legion.

Holiday Inn Corp. has announced total tax rates — or rates per room — of 15 dollars — or 16 dollars — Canadian. All this rate was made in revised tariff lists which will be effective for farmers and consumers.

Mr. Hines' budget presented a picture of a budget oriented for farmers and consumers.

LINDSAY'S ART SHOW

Visitors to Lindsay's Art Show, which is being held this week in the Public Library, may be surprised at the amount of talent and their attention... They can appreciate the wonderful hobby potential which art offers as a creative outlet and want to "get into the swim" themselves.

It is surprising the number of people in the district who have adopted amateur art as a hobby, and equally surprising is the degree of success some equal with professional guidance. This year's art show affords a wide variety of subjects with a liberal sprinkling of landscapes, portraits and still life... briefly, something to attract almost every interest. Making its debut this year is a photographic area... three entries in this category have more than passing attention and leave a lasting impression.

Those who participate in the show and those who give their time and effort to organizing it earn all the encouragement they receive for their contribution.

It might be a timely gesture on the part of the Library Board, perhaps with the assistance of Council, to see that adequate display facilities are made available. The cost would be small and the effect great.

Others Say . . .

A SMALL TOWN INDUSTRY SHOULD BE PRESERVED

An important point made on behalf of the Canadian primary textile industry at recent hearings of the Gordon Commission studying Canada's economic prospects is that this industry tends to be "small towns."

Two-thirds of the industry, in terms of numbers employed, is located in towns and cities with less than 50,000 population.

The advantages of this decentralization are many. It means that many Canadians, particularly women, are able to work in industries in small towns and districts near their homes. They have not had to transact their personal business with the transportation and housing problems often associated with employment in big cities.

Whole areas, such as the Grand River Valley, Waterloo, Paris, Preston, Galt, Waterloo, Brantford, Waterloo and the like, have been transformed by the employment opportunity, tax payments and local purchasing of textile plants.

It is obviously of great importance to the economic prospects of Canada to encourage industries which are able to provide this sort of balance to the over-concentration of population and industry in a few big centres.

Room At R.M.H.

To Be Decorated By Glen Institute

WEDNESDAY, March 22 - The members of the Glen W. L. in their regular meeting have decided to finance the decoration of a two bed semi-private room at the Royal Military Hospital in Lindsay. This is to include painting, floors, and decorations.

Other activities of the Glen W. L. included the purchase of two bed semi-private rooms at the Royal Military Hospital in Lindsay. This is to include painting, floors, and decorations.

Some thought was given to the purchase of a room at the Royal Military Hospital in Lindsay. The two rooms - one for each month, seemed like a good idea, but could be a financial drain. One man may have had a part in the enterprise. Correspondence was received from the Royal Military Hospital Association and the Musical Association relating to the progress in the work of the hospital.

Mrs. Frances Lampson, a member of the Victoria County Council, attended the meeting of the Glen W. L. on the coming Friday. The Leadership Training Classes will be held in April at the Royal Military Hospital in Lindsay. ### Trade And Tariffs Discussion Topic At Farm Forums

ONCE UPON A TIME... "At the recent general meeting of the Lindsay Farmers' Forum, it was felt by many that farmers should agree on the proposed principles of a new farm bill. Reference to trade and tariffs, feeling that this would be a step in the right direction. It was also felt that one of the biggest problems facing farmers is the fact that the U.S. has much too much lowered protection."

The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Edelbeck to discuss union leaders and secretary Dr. Tom Carroll.

On March 15, the Forum for the Safe Driving Contest will be used to pay expenses to the Ontario Agricultural Union annual meeting in Toronto.

Football was played, Mr. George Smith, president of the forum, and Mr. W. J. O'Connor, Lunch was served by the forum. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Edelbeck.

REED ROCK FORUM ON SAME SUBJECT

Tuesday evening, March 21, the Reed Rock Forum was the topic discussed by 12 members of the Reed Rock Farm Bureau. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Niclouk as it was felt this topic was a bit beyond most of the members, suggested that the discussion be limited to the subject of the proposed new farm bill.

The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Edelbeck.

On the Farm, the Forum regarding the general agreement on tariffs and trade and the proposed new farm bill, was presented. Although, at times, the discussion was a little heated, the majority of the members of the Canadian farmers is not apparent, the net result should be better understanding of the proposed new farm bill.

Mr. Roy E. Vaughan of Peterborough, Ontario, was the guest speaker. He based his talk on the words of St. Paul, 2 Timothy 4: 7-8. "I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith. Henceforth is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me at that day not only to me only but unto all them also that love His truth."

Interior decorations are being pink and deep navy for walls and even sofa is used with these two colors. A pink sofa and chair with a pink blind and one complementary to each other. It's fun to paint, and the best time is when you have the energy. Some colors seem to fade over time, and others seem to stay. Some colors are easier to wash, easier to apply and the paint is less effervescent than ever. That's why I like to paint. I'd like to keep up in a close room, from towels in all the colors from the point. Some day, they may have to stop, will be absolutely none.

Lindsay's Planning

Ops, Lindsay Councils Approve Two Readings

When the third and final reading of a by-law governing the future planning and zoning of the town of Lindsay is approved by Council, it will be the culmination of almost three years of work on the part of the Town Planning Board under the chairmanship of Deputy-revee Ada Greaves and the Ops Township Board. However, from the regulations set forth in this 35-page by-law, industry as other property owners in the town are to see sweeping changes, although some may not become evident for a generation or two.

The new town plan, as presented to Council on Monday night, and presented and explained by Mayor W. H. McLean, was voted down. He said that Lindsay is not the easiest town to plan as railways were built through the town and it was planned around them. He pointed out that in the new plan there would be no more subdivisions, no more subdivisions in what is now classified as a residential area. They can do nothing about that, he said, except by a Committee of Adjustment which is a group of businessmen appointed by Council. He said that the new zoning by-law governs areas where certain types of industry are to be located. A business which manufactures aircraft engines could not locate near a residential area, he said. "It turned 'non-exempt' which gave no effective fences or protected industrial areas," he said. "It is not good for the residential areas." The committee, he said, for example, such a business as a foundry or machine shop could not be located in the residential areas. "It gets to a point where there is no place to go but it has been much care given to its operation," he said.

"This is roughly the purpose of industrial zoning and planning," he stated.

Mr. Reddington said that as far as certain types of development is concerned, he does not think that the centre of the town will ever grow larger, but will expand into areas to the west and south of the residential areas, the west or south. He considered that one difficulty in presenting the new zoning plan was that there was no proposed annexation scheme in which the town could be expanded.

"You don't have a shopping centre in Lindsay," he said. "But you must get the town plan accepted by the Ontario Municipal Board for approval."

District Uranium Mining Prospects Are Reported In Ontario Breakdown

Stay-at-work

Strike Labelled

Propaganda Move

Toronto, March 20 (UPI)—The strike against steel at work strike by the Mill-Tech Corp. workers in Toronto has been termed an international propaganda ploy by W. H. McLean, said last night the strike is an attempt by the Communists to gain control of the Canadian U.S. steel industry. The union to gather propaganda material for East Germany. Most of the employees are staying at their homes, the plant working, eating and sleeping there, have come to Canada to fight the strike. After World War Two, McLean said that propaganda was designed to distract attention from the war by going to Canada, showing Germans in Canada behind locked doors. The workers, he said, are told that until 24 workers who were fired on Friday are re-instated. The workers are also trying to organize the unions in the plant.

Manager Suspicious Of Bonds; Part Of Sutton Loot -- Police

Toronto, March 20 (UPI)—A Toronto police co-operating with a British agent, Charles Dodge, who died 18 days after the holdup in Sutton, Ont., have arrested 41-year-old Roland Hayes Lewis of Guelph, Ont., and charged him with robbing an 80-year-old man.

The arrest was made following a tip from a Toronto business manager who had been approached by a wealthy worth of registered dealers seeking his services.

Police and four registered gamblers, including his daughter, Mrs. Charles Crowder, was watching television. They ran into the Sutton home, according to the court documents, during a house party, the T.V. set was broken. Mrs. Crowder, to open the safe, in which she had hidden with him a sum of $6,000, part of the long $36-thousand dollars

Fumes Victim Is Recovering

Reports from Lindsay now indicate that 40-year-old John Bodie of Oshawa, Ontario, was overcome by carbon monoxide in a packed car on the weekend. It is now reported that he is recovering several hours after having absorbed fumes from the motor. His condition degenerated at a point of carbon monoxide.

Auto License Deadline Past

Toronto, March 20—(UPI)—The deadline for renewing vehicle registration permits and drivers' licenses has passed. J. P. Russell, register of vehicles and driver's licences, said for getting new permits and drivers' licences.

Alfred Lloyd Found said that he was worried since there was no extension of time. "I am afraid I will be fined if I do not renew my permit," he said.

After today, persons caught without 1956 license plates are liable for a fine of $10. Persons without 1956 driving permits could be fined five dollars less than 10 dollars.

Quotable Quote

"I sold my mouth with worthless stuff and judge me when I've said enough." —An old Negro prayer.

Laff it off

A weary passenger, enroute to work on a steamer, New Jersey, yesterday carrying a long-handled scythe to his front porch to the boy said, "I would like to have a scythe because it would be easier to mow the grass." "Individuals will be pleased when they know that an area has been mowed with a scythe," he stated.

The boy, who was from a small town, told the man he had been taking scythes to town to sell them.

QUIRK

They say the Mountain always gets their mail and a rock formation in Dorset, Ont., has the honor for a few weeks.

It seems, however, Robert Lovell, 26, took out a new bath tub weekend. He put down his two bags of groceries to make the change. And he had to add insult to injury somehow, stuck his groceries.

In the preliminary report of the Ontario Department of Mines under the section referring to Eastern Ontario, it was noted that the province was noting that in the past two years since radioactive mineral has been produced in the eastern portion of the Batawaggon section, there are more than 1000 seismically properties under exploration, covering an area of 1,000 square miles. At the end of 1955, actual underground work was started on the first of these properties.

The report states that one firm, Baffin Uranium Mills Ltd., has signed a $100,000-a-month contract with the Canadian government for a total of $300,000. The company, Baffin Uranium Mills Ltd., early in January completed negotiations for a similar amount with the Ontario government.

In the case of Baffin, a mill is expected to be in operation in 1957. The company has already made a scholarly call for the treatment of 1,000 tons daily by January, 1957.

At Elliot Lake and Manitowadge the Ontario Government has under consideration the possibility of establishing a complete new town to accommodate the miners who will be employed in the mines in the districts and their families.

In addition to the uranium mining, there have come to Canada to fight the strike. After World War Two, McLean said that propaganda was designed to distract attention from the war by going to Canada, showing Germans in Canada behind locked doors. The workers, he said, are told that until 24 workers who were fired on Friday are re-instated. The workers are also trying to organize the unions in the plant.

Bylaw Moves Into Final Phase

Think you've got troubles?

PARKED TRACTOR HIT, OWNER HURT, CHAIN OF MISFORTUNES RECALLED

Easter Seals Returns Good Dollar-wise, Percentage Low

Ottawa (PBN) A rare accident in Ottawa's main street on Saturday night nearly killed a tractor owner named Mr. C. Ernest Thomas of Lindsay. Ernest parked on the right side facing west was struck by a car driven by Mr. Bernard Arthur of Ottawa.

The impact was so terrific that the left rear wheel of the tractor inflated and the transmission housing broke, allowing all of the oil to escape.

Mr. Thomas received a knee injury and some shaking of the upper arm, but was otherwise unharmed. His car body smashed. Chief Stevens investigated.

Mr. Thomas was the victim of misfortune during the past few years. His house was totally destroyed by fire in 1953. In 1954 he died during a storm, his wife run over by a farm tractor while visiting with family and at present is in hospital.

Our Own and Other Opinions

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AND COUNCIL'S RESPONSIBILITY

The further industrial development of Lindsay has been a subject which has been discussed at some length in various quarters over the past few years. It has been interesting to note that there has been a general acceptance that industrial development of the town is desired although there are still segments of the population which seriously question the wisdom of Lindsay getting beyond the "county town" stage. The people who think along these lines who see a great many advantages in retaining a rural character, have also been interested in the present relationship which exists in a town like Lindsay where it is possible to walk down street and not feel a stranger. They like the idea of being able to get to and from work with a great ease... no traffic snags to fray their nerves and no long journeys by bus or car. And when the season is right, lake or sea, they prefer a smaller place where air pollution (so much discussed today in larger centres) is not uncontrollable; they base in the luxury of being able to get home for lunch with a smile on their face and when they have a sufficient amount of time for a walkabout. These things are but a few of the reasons why more and more people are coming to appreciate the true value of a smaller community as a place to live, not merely exist, as is the case when one becomes caught up in the tedium of a large city.

Everyone recognises that it isn't possible to turn a town into a playground, but there is change happening and industries tend to come and go, and some replacement and even the introduction of the occasional new enterprise is desirable to maintain a good balance. But we believe that it is dangerous to let any one expansion go to extremes. Something of this sort led to taking place in Lindsay, an almost frantic desire to see industry may be causing prospects to shy away. There is good reason to believe that if we were to direct our attention towards making Lindsay the most attractive town in the area, we could do it in itself in the positive way with many virtues.

Leadership in the industrial development of the town is, it would appear, the responsibility of our elected members of Council. These people have a direct responsibility to the electorate and any action spent, or not taken, to develop the town must be directly attributed to them. Their primary course of action seems to lie in first getting their house in good order, second determining what the electorate desires industrially-wise, and third taking the course of action considered mostly likely to achieve it.

HOW'S THAT AGAIN BOSS?

Victoria riding's member of parliament is fast learning that a direct answer is apt to come in a round-about way in Ontario and even faster in Lindsay.

The Member of Parliament undoubtedly came to a recent meeting of Lindsay probably left Mr. Hodgson wondering whether he had asked his question in the first place and it gives readers some idea of what they may expect when they ask a direct question in government circles.

Ques. Howard:

Mr. C. W. Hodgson (Victoria, Ont.): Mr. Speaker, I should like to direct a question to the Prime Minister. Is it the intention of the government to give back the tax-exempt privilege that belongs to the provinces?

Mr. St. Laurent (Quebec East): Will the hon. gentleman be so kind as to repeat his question?

Mr. Hodgson: Is it the intention of the government to give back the tax-exempt privilege to the provinces?

Mr. St. Laurent (Quebec East): It is the intention of the government to make as much way as circumstances permit it to do in the field of taxation where the provinces and the federal government both have rights.

THE HYDRO RATES WON'T BE CUT

...NOT FOR A MILLION YEARS

"It's a mile high between the cut and the lip." This adage seems to apply to the hydro users of Lindsay who entertained visions of a cut in hydro rates for two and a half months only to find that they wasn't going to be one... not for a whole year.

Mr. McFadden, manager of the hydro department, sent a telegram to the Lindsay Hydro System in 1955, a spokesman for the commission was confident at the turn of the year that a cut in rates would be made in 1956. He was so sure of this that he predicted a cut at the inaugural meeting of Council and his prediction was given wide circulation in the news media and generally interpreted to indicate consent. This time it didn't and when the commission held its regular meeting this week the bombshell was dropped... no rate cut!

It is learned that the Lindsay Hydro System has been engaged in a continuing program of expansion for the last three years during which it has borrowed $150,000. The money was borrowed from the Bank of Montreal over the signature of the Town of Lindsay which had been authorized by the Ontario Ministry Board to allow hydro to borrow up to $200,000 without having to seek the meeting this week it was decided to pay $50,000 of the loan back but it wasn't quite that way.

Evidently some confusion has resulted from this decision because of the fact that it was announced at the meeting that the $50,000 would be paid off the loan from the Bank of Lindsay. Technically, the Town hydro explains, this is correct because the hydro which actually paid $50,000 to the Town but it deducted from the $150,000 loan. Before this was done the taxpayers were wondering what the hell was announced its intention concerning the tax rate could have been paid. But since the loan doesn't pay the principal, and since the hydro pays the interest, only things that are going to be reduced are the amount of the loan bank and the amount of the monthly interest charge to hydro. (Unless the Water Commission springs a surprise and cuts the water rate.)

It is the hope of the hydro transaction lies in the fact that when it reached the peak of its borrowing needs which seems to have been the $150,000. There will be those who feel that debalancing hydro debt is the only fair way because it spreads the cost of system improvements over a greater number of users with whom stand to benefit the expense of the current users. On the other hand we are interested in the "pay-as-you-go" suggestion advanced by the commission secretary. This would undoubtedly be a good thing because it would mean avoiding debt. In this case funds intended to be used for hydro would go to hydro living within your means, something that is not generally accepted and something which hydro would have to adapt here to in the future if such sobering surprises as we just received are to be avoided.

THIS IS RIDICULOUS

Questions asked by C. W. Hodgson, M.P. for this riding concerning importers of butter and cheese have received two answers. One is from the Minister of Agriculture, the other from the Minister of National Resources. Both, however, lack knowledge of a heavy surplus of Canadian butter which it has been trying to unload abroad through the purchase of approximately 11,500 pounds of butter from United States and Britain last year. (2) Millions of pounds of cheese were imported from New Zealand and Switzerland, Italy and the Netherlands.

Everyone recognises that it isn't possible to turn a town into a playground, but there is change happening and industries tend to come and go, and some replacement and even the introduction of the occasional new enterprise is desirable to maintain a good balance. But we believe that it is dangerous to let any one expansion go to extremes. Something of this sort led to taking place in Lindsay, an almost frantic desire to see industry may be causing prospects to shy away.

There is good reason to believe that if we were to direct our attention towards making Lindsay the most attractive town in the area, we could do it in itself in the positive way with many virtues.

Leadership in the industrial development of the town is, it would appear, the responsibility of our elected members of Council. These people have a direct responsibility to the electorate and any action spent, or not taken, to develop the town must be directly attributed to them. Their primary course of action seems to lie in first getting their house in good order, second determining what the electorate desires industrially-wise, and third taking the course of action considered mostly likely to achieve it.

TIG AD. NOT THE POSITION

Everyone recognises that a person who thinks the sport is the only game road. Next door to him the merchant prefers the hock page because that is "where people look first". The retailer across the street demands society because that's all women read. A druggist wants his ad across from the comics and a hardware store his. Most people's ideas of what they want are wrong, and they are all right.

A study of reading habits of hundreds of towns made by the City of Abbotsford shows that all parts of the newspaper are read. In fact, left hand pages get more per cent readers than right hand pages.

A lot of women buy ready-to-wear who read the food pages and they purchase cosmetics from the druggist who insists on a comic page.

The fact is, as is shown by the above study, that the druggist and the postman on the page make not one whit of difference in capturing readers. It is what the advertisement says, how it says it, and how it is presented that counts.

Many pages in this study showed that advertising got twice as much attention received by news stories and editorials as same pages. Make advertising interesting and the people interested in the merchandise advertised will flock to its position in the newspaper.—The Pocket-book.—The Peel Gazette.

CAN YOUR CHILD DRAW?

What does it matter, you say? Why, I can't even draw a straight line! Strangely enough we are learning day-by-day that it matters a great deal.

Parents who have ever have known gone through the scorching state. He loves to get a coloured crayon and scratch to his heart's content all over the page. Little by little forms emerge—perhaps they are not forms to you but they are to him. "That's a dog," he says. "A horse, or maybe a 'dog'." A small child, a boy or girl, has a creaked circle and a stick. There is a faint mark, a "dog". A tiny little drawing; a half inch high and just about as high turned out to be a couple of children on a teeter-totter, when he had been educated by the child to see it properly.

What is the child doing as he goes through this stage of life? He is trying, in his own unique way to make life easier. He has taken in the wonderful thought of his Daddy or his house and now he finds through his crayon he is able to give it again in a way that will show everyone that he has drawn it. This is the beginning of his idea. This identification makes it more real to him and at the same time helps him completely out of himself in his absorption with making a new creation—his picture.

To-day psychologists recognize as one of the best ways of forgetting oneself and yet at the same time and the amount of the monthly interest charge to hydro. (Unless the Water Commission springs a surprise and cuts the water rate.)

It is the hope of the hydro transaction lies in the fact that when it reached the peak of its borrowing needs which seems to have been the $150,000. There will be those who feel that debalancing hydro debt is the only fair way because it spreads the cost of system improvements over a greater number of users with whom stand to benefit the expense of the current users.

On the other hand we are interested in the "pay-as-you-go" suggestion advanced by the commission secretary. This would undoubtedly be a good thing because it would mean avoiding debt. In this case funds intended to be used for hydro would go to hydro living within your means, something that is not generally accepted and something which hydro would have to adapt here to in the future if such sobering surprises as we just received are to be avoided.

Spalding is essential to good soil conditioning.

Plants can be grown with no soil, but plants need a pot plant roots, and stored food can be grown with no soil, but plants need a better way to make gardens, trees.

Roots require as well as soil and plants need a soil, too. Roots can penetrate the soil, roots can penetrate the soil, and gardens have good drainage, but plants need a soil, too. Roots can penetrate the soil, roots can penetrate the soil, and gardens have good drainage, but plants need a soil, too.

If your soil is stiff, hard, and dry, you will have to make it more porous. Rebuilding gardens is often needed in a few inches of "back soil" excavated for the foundation of a new house. ## Communists Are Totally Backward Measured By Western Standards, Brain Specialist Tells Rotarians

Fenton, Palm (P.N.E.) — Dr. Kenneth S. Spalding, co-issuing brain specialist of the Ontario Hospital staff at Whitby, addressed the Rotary Club of Lindsay at its regular meeting at the Rural-Urban night held at the Fenton Restaurant.

Bible Thoughts

And if I be lifted up above the world all men unto Me. —John 12:32.

Christ's closest friends were right before His eyes when He was elevated to the cross. Christ knew that was the only way to reign eternal. The cross is the only way to salvation.

If we then be raised with Christ, such things as these are above.

—Col. 3:1.

The meaning of baptism illustrates the death of sin and rising again in Christ-like purity. It is not the water that purifies, but the faith that gives substance to that baptism.

Teach me to do Thy will, —Psalm 136:2.

It is sometimes hard to determine just what the will of God will for us. We should be eager to know more. Let us not pass by the signs and symbols of the gospel and services are greatly needed.

A total of 75 contributions have been made to date in the area for the Easter Seals-Scotiaville campaign, bringing returns of $1,878.50. This compares to 13 percent of packages mailed in February, 1955, which brought in a percent return from the 8,576 packages of Easter Seals mailed out to homes.

Highway Safety Check Figures Show 2,070 Vehicles Inspected In February, 346 Charges Laid

Two thousand and seventy vehicles were stopped by 346 police cars last month by Ontario Provincial Police in the continuing highway safety campaign.

The Corporation of the OPP Detachment today released the statistics for that month showing that 2,070 vehicles are known as Number One violators.

During February, 346 charges were laid against drivers who operated in the district comprising Victoria, Galt, Waterloo, Peterborough, North Bay, Sudbury and Timmins.

However, there were exactly 100 more drivers who received tickets than persons had been injured.

The Provincial Police, during the month of February, issued 1,000 summonses.

The checks were to see if the vehicle was in safe operating condition.

If you plan to buy a car for

Con. Dennis pointed out that although several warnings had been given, there were still charges laid.

Enough Different Zinnias To Plant a Whole Garden

Big and Small. All the blossoms illustrated are Zinnias.

Zinnias, the native American scarlet, pink and yellow varieties which are the easiest of all other annuals in the variety of colors they offer, are very pretty.

There is hardly a garden role for which these flowers cannot be used. A beautiful garden can be planned in many colors, and various forms are available. It is difficult to believe that such an effort can be made with so many varieties of one flower.

For the border foreground there are small flowers, with small blossoms, but large leaves, a decorative effect can be obtained by starting seeds in flats and then transplanting to the garden when the plants are well developed.

In a sun border, it would be well to plant a few rows of zinnias with groups of masses, and then group them and place them in harmonious contrast.

The border growing kinds with small double flowers of conventional colors, like pink, red, yellow, orange, rose, and scarlet colors.

The flowers of Marigolds, Zinnias and Dahlias, with each having its own characteristic color, including yellow, white, pink, red, etc.

After the reception the bride and groom attended a shower for a short honeymoon. The bride traveling in lime green suit with

ALL IN OUR TIME ... Man's conception of the serving soldier has changed much in the past few years. He is no longer merely a "man-with-a-sabre" but a highly trained professional soldier using the latest techniques of today's mechanized army. Keeping pace with changing requirements, the Canadian Army holds its place among nations in the design and manufacture of weapons and equipment. Among modern items of equipment in use are (above): (1) The recently adopted Cessna Li194 used as a liaison and spotter aircraft. (2) The simple all-weather bombarding device. LET US FACE FACTS!
Are you keeping pigs or are the pigs keeping you? Are you getting a PROFIT from feeding pigs—or are YOU KNOWING?

You buy the cheapest feed and figure it costs you less to feed a pig—or do you figure the cost of putting a pig to market?

REMEMBER IT IS THE BEST feed that makes you money, not the least expensive.

If you have fed PURINA, you have proof of what we say and if you haven't fed PURINA, H.O.W. is the best.

FEED PURINA AND HAVE THE PIGS KEEP YOU.

PURINA FEEDER FINANCE

PURINA FEEDER FINANCE will finance the pigs and feed for PURINA FEEDERS until the pigs go to market. At the present time we have a limited number of pigs to put on this plan, so get in touch with your dealer. The Monarchs were without two of their best swine last week and are now back on the team.

Over 400 farms were on hand for the game, which was the third in a best four out of seven games. Monarchs lead 3 in the series.

Our Own and Other Opinions

IT USED TO BE AN HONOUR
There was a time when members of the Ontario Legislature were expected to vote themselves an overall pay increase of $2,100 per member per year . . . a weekly raise of just over $40, part of which will be free from taxation at the income tax rate. They were not interested in the same clothes line.

In Gary, Indiana, it is against the law to ride in a trayway within four hours of eating garlic.

In Maine, it is against the law to set fire to a mule.

In California, it is a penal offense to set a trap for mice unless you have a permit.

In Toledo, Illinois, a woman can be gaed for trying on more than six garments in one shop.

In Kentucky, no woman may appear in a bathing suit unless armed with a club.

In Jonesboro, Georgia, it is against the law to say "Oh Boy."

In Fort Madison, Iowa, the fire department must practice for 15 minutes before going to extinguish a fire.

If this increase is granted the government will have the way to meet a new and growing demands within its own organization and these will be little difference in the minds of the people that aspiring politicians have at stake than the prestige and honour to party . . . they'll be considered to be seeking a fairly lucrative position which permits them to have profitable part-time interests.

NEVER SO MUCH FOR FEW IN SUCH A SHORT TIME

What is the latest report of the Select Committee investigating salaries of legislative members in the Ontario Legislature on Friday. Chairman Wm. Murdoch observed "never has so much been done for so few in such a short time." It took the committee just 25 hours to decide that every member of the legislature was underpaid. The committee recommended that the wages should be thrown to the Ontario people the committee further recommended that the proposed pay bonus be retroactive to June 9th, 1955 — almost ten months back pay. This we believe, is the time for Ontario people to make themselves heard in the legislature.

They should not be afraid to demand a reasonable amount of compensation. And, if there are those who are in doubt about making their feelings known, we would ask: "How many are there among those reading these words who, when they last received a raise, had it made retroactive?"

It is surprising that a motions proposal has not been introduced by members of the provincial legislature themselves. Their silence on this matter must cause taxpayers to wonder if their parliamentary affiliations aren't motivated more by a desire for financial gain rather than a desire to serve the people of the province efficiently and at a reasonable expense.

The amount of salary received from employees of the government may now be expected to be quite substantial and, if members accept the fantastic boosts in their own pay, they may find it embarrassing to be arbitrary in the case of those who are required to work the year-round rather than for a few weeks out of the year.

THE POLICE DEPARTMENT'S TIME SHOULDN'T BE WASTED

Following a recent a few days ago of a missing girl and her parents' report from police in the effect that the story they were told might be considered something of a hoax, "The Post" has received a communication from a citizen who presents this warning to all parents. We believe this is a good point in time, a good point when he says to his children: "As such hoaxes are dangerous, inciting tools to play similar practical jokes, it may be advisable to do something drastic to prevent these tricks once and for all. In this time, when rabbies and a threatening powder menace, the public needs the full time of the police for protection, unhampered by the unmasking of hoaxes."

We believe every responsible citizen will go along with this thought, recognizing that the best way to prevent hoaxes, which are often costly, is to do some, is to discourage them with severe penalties for their perpetration. The reaction will be immediate. Those who had been trying to contact police on a real and urgent matter and it was later found they were inexcusable at the crucial moment while investigating a "hoax."

ARE WE GETTING MORE FOR THE HIGHER PAY?

As has been more or less generally experienced by those who follow the proceedings of Parliament, the increased indemnities and allowances for members of both houses who sit in the House of Commons have not, in any great measure, resulted in members giving more time and attention to their duties to those whom they represent. The principal argument advanced for the increased indemnities was that those whom paid did not do properly compensate for the loss of time involved in the performance of their duties, which implied that the additional remuneration would permit them to give more time to Parliament.

Pursuit of this argument, during the last session, and in date in this session, indicated that absenteeism is rife among M.P.'s. The week-ends are given at their old tricks; and it is even suggested that the members of the opposition, in particular, are not confined to the members of any one party. It is, of course, more noticeable with members of the government party in view of the fact that the Liberals enjoy so large a majority in parliamentarian representation. Members of the official opposition are, on the average, as great a source of derision as are their opponents on the other side of the House.

Still remains too many honophores in House of Commons rules in the master of attendance which can be taken advantage of by members who are slack in the exercise of their duties. It behoves the elector to keep check on his representative and see that he does the job he is now being well paid for doing.

CROKINOLE

For sunburn-pure amateurism the game of crokinole still holds its own. Nor is it a sporting pastime that passed out with crinolines and oil lamps. One of the Star's own pure amateur is still holding his own and assures our readers that the game is still flourishing.

A weekly crokinole party is one of the Winter features sponsored by the Sandfield Women's Institute. The clicking of the black and white wooden disks on the crokinole board is a sound that proves irresistible to enthusiasts of the game.

It is a game of skill. Make no mistake about that! The skilled player can direct the path of the sliding disk with the same finesse as a billiard player. Carom shots off an opponent's disk and shots off the rubber-covered pegs are the mark of the skilled player. He can "call" his shots with the same confident assurance that a billiard player names the pocket into which he intends to drop a ball.

MARGARINE AND SPREADS

The law (against margarine) seemed severe. It was forbidden to manufacture, to offer for sale or to buy margarine. Those who transgressed the law were terribly severe.

They went so far as to encourage informers by turning over to the informants a part of the fine imposed on lawbreakers. "Electoral mimicry" said the Liberals. They said the anti-margarine law would not be respected, that the government would not be able to enforce it.

This is what happened. The farmers had the law they demanded and the working people had the margarine. For some months it had to be procured on the quiet. It was hidden under the grocer's counters, but it was everywhere. It was as easy to buy as bread.

Now, however, a lot of cleverness has shown that it was sold by millions of pounds in Quebec. There one day appeared, promptly at first, then widely open to the sky. What was hidden got the redaction of the government.

UNDERESTIMATING THE YOUNG

The young people of the world, it is often explained, are the key to which the salvation of the young has come on this continent or at least in the United States. It seems that the school board of a New York town recently refused to allow a group of senior students to buy a subscription to the New York Times for use in a course in civics.

Business leaders, however, are not so sure. They believe that the young people of the world, the future of the world, are the key to which the salvation of the world has come.

According to the letter-writer, a member of the board said that while he considers the Times of New York "a very good paper," he felt it to be "a little too lofty for the average high school student." The writer remarks that the paper has a great deal of the high school curriculum was too lofty for things such as music and literature, for example. And, one is tempted to add, "Problems in American Democracy."

Is mediocrity always to be the aim? asks the wily correspondent. Should not the average high school student be allowed to have a little, although challenging, instead of just? He remembered that in his own high school days, "before the days of the Communist menace" this same course was taken with the head of a good many newspapers including The Daily Worker, the founder of which was a man who, in the opinion of some communists who have turned into conservatives,

The spectacle of a class of high school seniors in what is generally referred to as "the world's greatest democracy" being thus made object lessons in "Problems of American Democracy" is not reassuring. It simply argues once more to the fore that the educational system of the United States, and of the grade schools, were made to learn the basic "hard" subjects and otherwise left to their own devices in a world which will expect them to confront and solve its myriad problems as they mature. Our guess is that their backbone would often normalize.

INDEFENSIBLE OF COURSE

There is a nation abroad in some quarters, political, intellectual and others, that moderation is the course of weakness, that only by "taking a firm stand" does a man exhibit courage and integrity.

We would suggest that many times, though certainly not universally, the exact opposite is true say an example. Again and again the moderate path is the right one.

It often is unspectacular as compared with the more dramatic extremes. Since, too, it so often stresses compromise, it can be very unpopular when the social, political or moral atmosphere seems to favor "no com-

Vegetables Are Beautiful In Well Ordered Garden

For Shallow Drill for Tiny Seeds, Press Edge of Board Into Soil.

Use Hoe Handle to Make Drill

A vegetable garden can be beautiful. Professional gardeners, however, are not content with taming the beauty of private gardens, they are also concerned with planning.

Vegetables in order, with crops properly timed to grow in sequence, are a pleasure to the eye, and a pleasure to the nose.

Now, however, beauty, but efficiency can be gained by such a layout. One need not be a professional gardener to know the straighter paths between two rows of vegetables will be more profitable, will be more beautiful, and will be more easily maintained.

Planting seeds in a vegetable garden should be spaced at varying distances between them, depending on the needs of the crop, and the conditions of the soil. Some vegetables may be spaced more closely in in poor soil, and more widely in good soil. It is difficult to cultivate between the rows.

Crops growing twelve inches apart will produce a better yield than a crop of saturated soil, and a crop of saturated soil will produce a better yield than a crop of twelve inches apart. Eighteen inches is likely to be the best distance for most vegetables, but make a trial run before turning the roots of the vegetables.

For small seeds such as radishes, carrots, lettuce, onions, and beans, a depth of one inch is enough. A little deeper, and the seed will not germinate. A deep seed, such as peas, beans, and carrots, will not germinate if sown too shallow. Sowing is preferred now, when the soil is warm, and not to make drills, but make a little deeper when hot weather comes.

Community Hall, purchased by the community for its use, was open for the first time and was much admired.

Mr. G. C. McLean, president of the Ontario and the Institute, the Mary St. Stewart Club, was present.

Mr. McLean said the new Scripture reading minutes were read and the treasurer's report showed a balance of $2000. The subject was "Artistic in Architecture."

Mr. Wilfred Bowles gave a very interesting talk and discussed the subject of the new hall. The audience was asked to think about the educational problems of the future.

Mr. Arthur Dorell, vice-chairman of the Federation of Agriculture, gave a report on the Ontario Agricultural Show, which the motto was "Live to Learn and Learn to Live."

There were many occasions, too when it is far better, more difficult, to work out. The extremes may offer pat, simple answers to problems. Solutions in the middle range may be called for to balance the adjustments. They may demand resistance to extremes on either side.

The most serious gains solutions in the middle and finds for them with all vigor need never have his head. He is a life-time competitor, for the best of those who aggressively champion the more exposed positions of life.

McLintock Twp. Pioneer Passes

A link with the frontier past of Haliburton County was severed on March 1st, 1956, with the passing of James Robertson, 86, of the McIntosh General Hospital. Mr. Robertson, who during his lifetime had produced seven sons and nine daughters in the raw and stark environment of the then wilds, was living in the then wilds of the forest in the then wilds of McIntosh Township. In the spring of 1955, he had been in the hospital for the second year, but had had a long history of ill health for nearly 20 years. His wife, Anna, died 10 years ago, and his son, Alexander, died 10 years earlier. His son, John, died in 1948, and his son, Robert, died in 1952. His son, George, died in 1954.

Robertson was born in 1870 in Scotland, and emigrated to Canada in 1892.

Following his wife's passing, Mr. Robertson sold his farm on the 100th concession.

About 1910, he moved to Lindsay, where he worked for the Great Northern Railway, and later for the Canadian National Railways, in the timber yards.

Acting Up at the Dinner Table

AFTER the meal has been eaten and everyone is in the mood for some games friendly to a good dinner time.

The performer takes an apple or potato and places it on the table. (Or, if none is available, takes the seed from a piece of ginger ale or soda water, he dips his fingers in water and quickly smacks the seed to the bottom. Now he has the seed on the bottom. The performer makes his hand descend so that the seed will rise to the surface again at the person's command.)

Actually this trick is not a trick at all, but just a trick on the performer's audience for the seed snake and nose to suffice of its own creation. That is because bubbles of gas adhere to it causing it to float at the bottom. The seed snake rises when it accumulates more bubbles.

The performer continues with these motions to coincide with those of the seed.

Try Your Luck

KIDS will go power mad over this game important to the solution of the tests posed by the diagrams at right and below. It is a game for the young, especially for those who are fond of fun and exciting pastimes as to pit one's skill and good fortune against another.

The test is this:

Curse her words appear in

A	V	R	G

Letters form across the scope of the blocks. Solvers are asked to complete them.

To help you solve all of the letters showing now in the empty spaces, here is a key to the symbols: a system of trial and error. Fill in the first letter of each row or column to form short words. Of course, letters inserted must also fit into the other rows and columns. Vertical rows of the correct letters will be found when covered, all horizontal rows will contain the correct letters.

Let's try to fill in all the blanks to find the key word. You will find that you have many shorter words to be found.

Colored pencils or crayons with sharp points are best.

Answer Quickly

HOW quickly can you rearrange the letters in your name to form another word?

If you can do it in less than one minute, you're a genius.

Up per page and away.

SHORT STORY

Magic Month

By DERY WILSON

HELLO! AND ANDY weren't meta-morphic chairs which were placed at right angles to each other, instead of at right angles to the floor, so the glow in their eyes was replaced by a smile.

"The trouble is we have no audience. Helen was saying all the time, 'You act like a fool! You act like a fool!' The long curl of hair which she got to her

3-Minute Fiction

"Andy got up too. He got up too. He had brought home from war with him a young woman he adored. Andy had blonde curly, too tight to his will shape, head and dark eyes. Helen, who could say that again? 'I tell Helen, tell Helen, tell Helen,' she said. Well, that's that and I'll reenact it when I get home.'

When he got home the radio was playing live and he wound one over the other and sat in the big green armchair. The young woman came into the room and said, "aren't you going to look for a job today?"

He was worried for an answer the moment he heard the question. "I'm going to talk about a soap contest," "Five more minutes," he said. "I'll just tell in between the commercials."

Andy Tyson tried not to understand what he was doing. He had wasted many a afternoon. He made great work of writing his entries and addressed the envelope for mailing.

Andy turned his steps to the front door. He slipped off his felt hat and teased him about the letter he hurried out of the place and mailed the letter into the near.

In the three weeks that went by he did not go to work. One day slipped into the next and a laze seemed to have come over him. He had time and getting more disinterested.

THE NIGHT IT CAME, when he got home to find excitement in the house, he ripped it open and saw a telegram. It read: SUZY, YOU WINNER OF FIRST PRIZE, STOP. PROGRAM STOP. CONGRATULATIONS.

Next day Andy got it. It was a telegram from the radio station. "Mr. Walter Morris, A.T.C.M., and commended Mrs. Holmes performance.

An audience member during the appearance of Mr. Morris, who is a record of Peterborough, who is a well-known concert whistler, who was held in high esteem, and a talented concert whistler in Canada. With a wonderful selection of bird songs, Mr. Morris sang "Birds of a Feather" from "A Monastery Garden" and "Bird Song at Eventide," accompanied by piano by Mr. Morris. That was an excellent performance, for most of the audience and was obviously very much enjoyed.

Mrs. Kinnear, who had taken part in the show, wrote to Mr. Peterborough, Elizabeth Eaton, Margaret Wilkinson, Janet Martin, Phil Hartman, Mrs. Marion Martin, Judy Thomas, Eleanor Parrot, Patricia Gordon, Margaret Lovell, Mrs. Wilma, Mrs. Anna Welskin, Mrs. Ruthie Chapman, Carol House, Jane Davis, Cradle Dust, Mrs. Helen, Mrs. John, Mrs. Eddie, Mrs. Webster, Eleanore, Mrs. Stephen Phillips, Nancy, Thelma, Ethel, Dorothy, Mrs. Linda, Mrs. Linda, Mrs. Carolyn Ferguson, Mrs. Stitch, Linda Thompson, Marlene Sharp, Linda Blanning and Aunt Puddy.

He ripped the telegram open and nearly passed out.

"But I didn't win!" Andy said when he was told the program was over. "I know it's my name and that Robert Adams was the first runner-up."

The door bell interrupted him. When he was glancing at it he saw a telegram. "Tears rolled down her face as she burst into tears. She laughed, but Andy couldn't help laughing either."

"They hadn't done it, it'd still be angry with each other," she said. "And we would have to have your job, and we wouldn't be going on getting married."

BEST CUSTOMER

THE STEEL INDUSTRY'S best customer is the farmer.

Directly, the farmer as an individual is a buyer of steel and on the farmer's property rests the prosperity of the farm implement business, which is one of the three Canadian industries using the most steel.

The two other largest direct customers of the steel industry are the railways and the automotive industry. These also are largely dependent on the farmer's prosperity. Moving crops to market is the part of railway business on which nearly all the rest is based.

Motor vehicles owned by the farmer or by other people moving foodstuffs account for a large part of the total automotive business.

Because it is in the steel industry's interest that the farmer have profitable crops, the industry will try to help him out of cost of steel products the farmer must buy. This company is constantly acquiring new facilities to produce more steel for more people.
